

BRANFORD BOASE AWARD 2020: LONGLIST ANNOUNCED

The longlist for the 2020 Branford Boase Award is announced today (Tuesday 28th January 2020). Set up in memory of award-winning author Henrietta Branford and her editor Wendy Boase, one of the founders of Walker Books, the Branford Boase Award is given annually to the author of an outstanding debut novel for children and has a notable record in picking out the most talented authors at the start of their career. Over its twenty-one-year history winners and shortlisted authors have included Siobhan Dowd, Meg Rosoff, Mal Peet, Frank Cottrell Boyce and Patrick Ness as well as Frances Hardinge, MG Leonard and Philip Reeve.

Uniquely, the Branford Boase Award also honours the editor of the winning title and highlights the importance of the editor in nurturing new talent.

In another outstanding year for debuts, 59 books were submitted and by more than two dozen different publishers; 20 books have made it onto the longlist. These include Jasbinder Bilan's Costa winner Asha and the Spirit Bird; Sharna Jackson's bestseller High-Rise Mystery [1], edited by Robin Stevens for Knights Of; as well as books from independent presses Everything with Words, Firefly Press and Floris Books.

This year the judges are Sue Bastone, vice-chair SLA; Victoria Dilly, creator of the Book Activist blog; Layla Hudson of Round Table Books, Brixton; and Muhammad Khan, author of I Am Thunder, winner of the 2019 Branford Boase Award. The panel is chaired by Julia Eccleshare, children's director of the Hay Festival.

Julia Eccleshare says: "As the Branford Boase Award enters its 21st year, we are delighted to have another exciting and particularly diverse set of books to consider. Here are comedies, murder mysteries, adventures set in imaginary worlds, in faraway countries and in landscapes familiar to us all. The wealth of talent on display continues to inspire us and we are very much looking forward to discussing the longlist with our judges."

The Branford Boase Award is sponsored by Walker Books.

The shortlist for the Award will be announced on Thursday 30th April 2020. The winner will be announced on 1st July at a ceremony in London.

The Henrietta Branford Writing Competition [11], the annual competition for young people which runs in conjunction with the Branford Boase Award, is also open.
