These sturdily constructed lift-the-flap board books illustrated with Cousins' characteristic bold colours, basic shapes and thick black outlines afford a cheerful introduction for toddlers to the well-known mouse. A repetitive text 'Is Panda under the sink? No, not here!' invites joining in, and odd surprises (like a fish in the loo) add interest for older sharers. My toddler experienced some frustration when only one side of a pair of double doors opened, but generally these are successful and appropriate for a board book audience.
