First published in hardcover over fifteen years ago and one of the early Picture Puffins Tim Mouse now appears on the Carousel list. Well chosen words and alternate spreads in colour and black and white relate the air-born rescue by Tim and his friends of the harvest mice trapped in a fast-dwindling area of standing corn with farmers' dogs and cat waiting to gobble them up. In my experience Judy Brook's picture books have delighted many an infant (I've never understood why no paperback publisher has snapped up her Noah's Ark) and it is good to see this one available again after such a long time.
