This humorous brightly illustrated picture book will resonate with every member of the family! When baby calls out from his buggy on the family walk, each member of the family and all the farm animals they meet believe he is calling to them and trying to attract their attention. Their delight only frustrates the baby more. Finally his older brother realises what the baby is trying to convey and he races off to rescue brown bunny that has been dropped. Baby's increasing urgency and distress are satisfactorily resolved and with a twist to this tale's ending, not only will every child be smiling but so too will all the adults!
