This sequel to Treasure Island must have been fun to write. It has the flavour and adventure of the original, historical interest to be absorbed in passing or teased out, and a young teller called Tom, who is victim-hero like Jim Hawkins, Master Jim, Squire, Doctor, Ben Gunn, Cap'n Flint and most of the rest are there, grown older. Silver now operates as Mr Argent. The cast now includes Bristol Rioters and black servants. The voyage back to Treasure Island almost turns into one of Lesson's Cimarron stories, but ends with a sea-stained letter from Tom - year, lat, and long. indecipherable. Whose revenge? Whose book?
