Scruff the puppy dog, and everybody around him, smells a strange smell...It seems to follow Scruff around. The young reader will enjoy getting the joke before any of the characters in this lively and cleverly shaped tale. As in all Rose's work, the play between text and pictures is witty. My co-readers (sixes and rising sevens) read it first to get the story; then again to see how the pictures, with their wealth of detail, made it work.
