The latest in the series of excellent information books for children at the stage of working out and categorising. Each book combines fun with an economic but good use of language. With bright and amusing cats on every page, this book deals with all sorts of bikes - big, small, one for a mother and child, a unicycle, tandem, racing bikes, delivery bikes, exercise bikes, a moped, a trail bike, a farm bike, etc. etc. Certainly to be recommended.
