Read in an appropriate Northern accent, this gripping story is about young Mike Baxter. He's plagued at the Comprehensive by the bully Steven - until they decide to challenge one another. Which of them can stay down the longest in the disused air-raid shelter filled with blackness and stories of long-dead men? In the twenty minutes that drag like hours, Steven and Mike are forced to learn truths about one another and from understanding comes tolerance. An unobtrusive moral in a fast-moving story.
