Zot fans fell on this new story with gusto and found it to their satisfaction. The book is an hilarious romp through the joys of a wild camping holiday when Clive and his 'dog' Zot take on the dastardly duo of Master Rat and his brother Macho Rat. I have to say the children loved it as much as they love the other sequels, but for me none of them quite touches on the power of the themes explored in the first book, Adventures of Zot the Dog.
